DEDICATION

Carr Hendrickson

The Monroe Monocle of 1950 is proudly dedicated to Mr. Carr Hendrickson, the school's capable custodian.

Mr. Hendrickson graduated from Monroe in 1909. Twenty years later he returned to assume the janitorial duties of the school. He has worked diligently at his numerous tasks, and has always kept the school functioning smoothly. He has also devoted many extra hours to the school in order to keep the building in good condition.

To Mr. Hendrickson, the loyal friend of all Monroe students and teachers, we, the class of 1950, dedicate our Monocle.

DEVELOPMENT

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Mr. Joseph Heck

Mr. Ralph Helsinger

Mr. Robert Matson

Mr. Charles Ruethe

Mr. Wilbur Flory

Mr. Claude Barker
Mr. Everett Switzer

The Lemon Township Board of Education consisted of Mr. Claude Barker, Mr. Everett Switzer, Mr. Ralph Helsinger, Mr. Robert Matson, and Mr. Joseph Heck. However, Mr. Ralph Helsinger and Mr. Claude Barker, after many years of faithful service, decided to retire, and their places were very capably filled by Mr. Wilbur Flory and Mr. Charles Ruethe at the first of the year.

The members of the school board are the representatives of the people of Lemon Township in all school affairs. They have worked diligently toward the completion of the new wing of the high school. This has required the untiring efforts and intense personal interest of each member of the board. Besides the actual building, they have seen to the installation of the most modern equipment and facilities available. Since the passing of the Bond Issue in November the school board has been busy with plans for further enlargement of the school system. Under the influence of such fine citizens Lemon Township is gradually obtaining one of the finest school systems in this part of the country.

SUPERINTENDENT

Lemon Township Schools have been under the very capable direction of Mr. C. W. Young for a number of years, each year his duties increasing, due to the enlargement of the school system. He has always handled these duties very efficiently and has solved many complex problems easily, due to his unerring judgment and years of experience. He has worked diligently toward the completion of the new wing of the high school and due to the passing of the Lemon Township Bond Issue he is now occupied with plans for further extension of the Township Schools.

Lemon Township is indeed grateful for his untiring efforts toward an exceptionally fine school system.

Mr. C. W. Young.

Gene Fisher Stella Paul Hazel Hannah

Secretaries

The duties of the secretaries in the superintendent's office are very numerous and detailed. These duties are very capably performed by Miss Stella Paul and Mr. Eugene Fisher. Mr. Fisher has been added to the staff this year as business manager. Mrs. Hazel Hannah, Clerk of the Board of Education, is another competent member of the staff. Both she and Miss Paul have held these positions for a number of years and add much to the smooth running of the Lemon Township Schools.

PRINCIPAL

Mr. W. E. Davis

Mr. Davis is now completing his second successful year here at Lemon-Monroe High School. During this period he has made many improvements to aid in the management of the school. Many difficult administrative problems have been solved through his patience, tact, and understanding of the student. No matter how busy he is with his numerous executive duties, he will always take time to help solve the personal problems of the individual students. His reserved, yet determined character has made a lasting impression on all of us.

Secretaries

The many duties of the principal's office are handled very efficiently by Miss Doris Carter and Miss Marie Hon, both former graduates of Monroe. These girls carry out with dispatch and efficiency the numerous tasks that are necessary to keep the school running smoothly. They have also proven themselves indispensable to Mr. Davis.

THE MONROE CHRONICLE

MAY 25, 1965 MONROE, OHIO JOAN FLEMING, Editor

NOTORIOUS GANG CAPTURED

The notorious Gehron gang known for their daring robbery of chewing gum from the bottom of theater seats was captured today by Sheriff T. J. Thompson and his dashing deputies, Garry Smallwood, Gene Muncy and Charlie Boxwell. The capture was made possible by the brilliant sleuthing of Miss Norma Deaton, private eye. Marcella Gehron, the brains of the outfit, told police that the gang was pressing out the gum, rewrapping it and selling it again. Members of the gang captured included "Dead-eye Dennis," "Sticky Fingers Jordan," "Spike Spencer," "Heartless Heuman," "Tiny Hopper," and their Moll, Betty Sponsel.

NEW TOXIN DISCOVERED

Wendell Hammond, a renowned scientist, announced today that after 15 years of effort and toil, he has finally found the right formula for a toxin for the extermination of fleas. The world (especially dogs) has long awaited this discovery and Mr. Hammond, along with his able assistant, Delmar Hall, can now retire and enjoy the fruits of his labor.

SENATE DEBATE

There was a hot debate raging in the Senate today over the question "Should Traffic Laws Be Passed on Flyng Saucers?" Arguing for the affirmative was Senator William Oglesby from Ohio. The negative stand was taken by another Ohio Senator, Edwin Marxen.

LOCAL NEWS

"Hamburger Heaven," a new restaurant, held a very successful opening day yesterday, Gordon Lloyd, proprietor, announced. He went on to say that a crowd of over 7,000 was very capably handled, thanks to Chief Cook Maxine Wood, and waitresses, Joyce Wooddell, Evilee Sibert, Eula Philpot, Dolores Moses, June Manrod, and Bessie Berry.

SOCIETY NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. James Myers (Joanne Clark) celebrated their fifteenth wedding anniversary by holding open house yesterday. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. James Armitage (Joanne Ballard), Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Jestice (Mary Louise Boggess), and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Barnes (Jenny Rothfuss).

Theater Notes

"Her Husband's Wife," that popular musical comedy written by Barbara Hill will be at the Bijou starting tomorrow. Starring is that popular baritone, Sam Herring. Playing opposite him is Helen Boyd, a newcomer to the screen. A dazzling chorus line consists of Barbara Mason, Mildred Baird, Marge Hipp, and LaVonne Sorrell.

—o—

Patty Greer, Hollywood gossip columnist, reports that there may be a romance in the offing between that petite ballerina, Mary Jane Cox, and handsome Hollywood idol, Gene Fultz.

—o—

Jim Collier, manager of Mildred Shane, celebrated tap dancer, has announced that Miss Shane will soon start on a European tour. She will sail next Tuesday on "The Lady Monroette" of which Hugh Unger is captain.

—o—

Joyce Craft will star in a new daytime program on television entitled "How to Avoid Housemaid's Knee." Assisting her are Phyllis Mull and Betty Rouse. Jack Tudor will give the commercials for "Drudgery Soap Flakes."

The Monroe Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Jim Weir, will present Symphony No. 485938 in B# minor by Joseph Ihle. In the fifteenth movement a duet will be played by Reva Moore on the tuba and Phyllis Anderson on the flute. Ann Streifthau and Pat Stewart are to be congratulated on their splendid job on the bass drums.

SPORT NEWS

The Monroe Hornets tromped the Middletown Middies 78-14 last night in the Monroe gym. The Hornets did a splendid job, thanks to the dynamic coaching of Fritz Margerum and his assistant, Vernon Collins. The cheerleaders, coached by Miss Shirley Leber, showed great spirit in leading the enthusiastic crowd.

—o—

At the last report, Bob White was a short distance ahead of Lawrence Duff in the 24th hour of the 300 mile marathon race. Jerry West was reported to be trailing Duff by just a few yards.

—o—

"The Sluggers," Monroe's great girl's baseball team, defeated the Cincinnati Red Hose in a no-hit game, 27-0. Dory Walck pitched the no-hitter with Phyllis Lansaw catching. The other members of team include Jo Crawford, Barbara Gross, Betty DeFrates, Rita Hydler, Edith Rosselot, Jacquie Staton, and Norma Tewart. The team is under the capable Management of Bobbie Powell.

I, Marge Hipp, will and bequeath all the handsome men I wish I had, to the lucky gal who gets them.

I, Shirley Leber, will and bequeath my typing speed and good times in school to Janet Eiler. I also leave the school building to the termites.

I, Carl Jordan, will and bequeath my ability to draw in engineering drawing to Jack Reidel.

I, Rita Hydler, will and bequeath my wonderful seat in American Problems to Wanda Whisman; may she make the best of it.

I, James Myers, will and bequeath my nicknames and track ability to Theron Long.

I, Reva Moore, being of unsound mind, will and bequeath my "groan-box," better known as bass fiddle, to Gail Peirat, or anyone else of that size.

CLUB NEWS

At the last meeting of the League of Young Women Farmers elections were held and Miss Doris Steward was elected president; Miss Margaret Woodard, secretary; Miss Anna May Lindsay, treasurer; Miss Pat Brown, Sergeant-at-arms.

At their next meeting Mr. Homer Adams and Mr. Zollie Heizer, renowned farmers of Monroe will discuss "Relief of Nagging Backache for Chickens." Other guest speakers at the meeting will be Reverend Dana Long, and Mayor John Linn.

Circus Comes To Town

The circus will appear in Monroe starting next Monday. There is a gigantic side show featuring Don Johnson as the Bearded Man, and Jim Brammer, as the Strong Man. Miss Ruby Tuggle will stun the audience with her daring feats as a bareback rider; Bill Norvell will thrill them with his fire-eating act; and clowns Vernon Craig and Red Oglesby will send them into fits (of laughter, of course).

JOBS WANTED

Job as a mattress salesman wanted. Willing to give realistic demonstrations. Bracy Majors.

Inexperienced apprentice wants job assisting photographer. Willing to carry equipment, unscrew hot flash bulbs, cut negatives, etc. See Kenny Wilkinson.

IN MEMORIAM

BETTY McKINLEY

BONNIE PURCELL

In memory of two former Monroe elementary students, Betty McKinley and Bonnie Purcell, we dedicate this page. Betty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McKinley, was an outstanding student of the fifth grade, while Bonnie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Purcell, was an excellent sixth grade student. Both girls were church members and attended Sunday School regularly. The passing of these two girls is indeed a great loss to their families, classmates, and school.

OF BODY

SEPTEMBER 17

The opening game was host to the impressive ceremony dedicating the new Lemon-Monroe Field. Attending the opener were an estimated 3000 persons. Hamilton Catholic came out victorious with a score of 14-0. The Hornets really put up a fight; and all who attended went home happy.

ACTION

SEPTEMBER 23

Today the "Ridgers" from Northridge edged the Hornets with a 20-19 score. Both teams were out to win, and both were fighting till the final whistle sounded.

SEPTEMBER 29

Monroe's Hornets came up with their first victory as a thrilling first half brought all the points. In this half Franklin's Wildcats bowed to a 19-13 loss.

OCTOBER 7

Agan the victors! Monroe rolled up a 14-6 score over Osborn. Also the new field was given its official name of The Lemon-Monroe Memorial Field.

ATHLETIC BOARD

NOVEMBER 10

The Hornets racked up a 26-13 victory over Wilmington. Holding the Hurricanes scoreless for three quarters, the Hornets made a good ending of a successful season.

NOVEMBER 4

Norwood's Indians went down before the mighty Hornets. The 20-0 victory was a morale booster.

SHOTS

OCTOBER 14

A rousing home coming crowd marked the evening as a never to be forgotten night. Dunbar tripped the Hornets 32-0 in a very fast game. The teams fought for every yard gained.

OCTOBER 21

This proved to be another sad evening as the Hornets again bowed to a 38-7 score piled up by the Lima South eleven.

OCTOBER 27

A "moral" victory was scored, as Chillicothe was rated high over the Hornets. Though we bowed to a 13-12 loss, everyone was expecting a much greater margin.

Boys' State

Student Council

ORGANIZATIONS

HONOR GROUPS . . .

BOYS' STATE

Two Monroe students participated in the 1949 Ohio Boys' State. They were Bill Oglesby and Jim Weir. Boys' State offers valuable training by setting up a miniature state complete with cities and elections.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is composed of representatives from each home room whose purpose is to handle the affairs of the student body. This group is very capably lead by their president, Wendell Hammond, and the faculty advisor, Mr. Kimble.

National Honor Society

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The highest honor anyone can achieve at Monroe is membership in the National Honor Society. The four criteria for membership are Character, Service, Leadership, and Scholarship. The seniors who have achieved membership are Jim Weir, Wendell Hammond, Mildred Baird. Marla Jeanne Steward, Marcella Gehron, Joan Fleming, Pat Greer, Bill Oglesby, Charles Moore, Leland Lynch, Edwin Marxen, and Fritz Margerum.

SERVICE GROUPS . . .

Announcer

The morning bulletin is read each morning by the student announcer, Bill Oglesby.

Custodians

The job of keeping the school spic and span for classes is capably handled by the school custodians, Mr. Patton and Mr. Hughes.

Cooks

The cooks who serve us our fine lunches each day are:

Row 1 — Mrs. Steward, Mrs. Rodgers, Mrs. Apple, Mrs. Oglesby.

Row 2 — Miss Rogers, Mrs. Waite, Mrs. Dudley, Mrs. Rothwell.

SERVICE GROUPS . . .

Student Librarians

The student librarians, under the direction of Miss Fiori, have handled the numerous duties of the library very capably this year. Those assisting are:

Seated — Nellie Bashaw, LaFrance McFarland, Peggy Heflin, Janet Collinsworth.

Standing — Miss Fiori, Earl Hayes, Phyllis Harlan, Barbara Flint, Sylvia Bruce, Jim Boudinette, James Kemp, Joanne Clark, Joan Fleming, Norma Ellis.

Chair Crew

The tremendous job of setting up chairs for assemblies has been handled with much dispatch and efficiency by the members of the chair crew. Included in this hard working crew are Bill Kesterman, Tommy Thompson, Frank Goode, Tom Joy, Hearl Johnson, Gary Hines.

Hall Monitors

The hall monitors under the direction of Mr. Moore, serve many useful purposes by running errands for the school and relaying messages. They serve as an information bureau for visitors.

They are:

Row 1 — Delores Harper, Pat Runkles, Dorothy DeFrates.

Row 2 — Dorothy Hatton, Pat Harmon, JoAnn Heinkel.

Row 3 — Anna May Lindsay, Norma Deaton, Anna Fields.

Row 4 — Joanne Klapper, Margaret Woodard, Gerry Deaton.

Row 5 — Patty Goforth, Frances Burger, Violet Reed.

Row 6 — Barbara Agee, Barbara Moore, Wanda Richardson

Row 7 — Mary Harris, Jean Busby, Cathy Burton

Row 8 — Phyllis Anderson, Billy McNabb, Bobbie Craig.

Row 9 — Leo Tucker, Michael Boyle, Tom Joy.

Row 10 — Kenny Wilkinson, David Folmer, Dick Hinds.

Rest Room Monitors

The rest room monitors' duties are to care for the ill and keep the rest room in order. They are under the guidance of Mrs. Guernsey, Dean of Girls. Pictured are Mrs. Guernsey, Helen Boyd, Margaret Woodard, Charlotte Hill, Arlene Wright, Virginia Meadows, Hazel Hill, Dorothy Monce, Sylvia Moore. In bed - Jean Busby.

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

Junior Orchestra

This is a growing group of youngsters who will someday fill uniforms in the high school band. It is composed of members of the 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 6th grades.

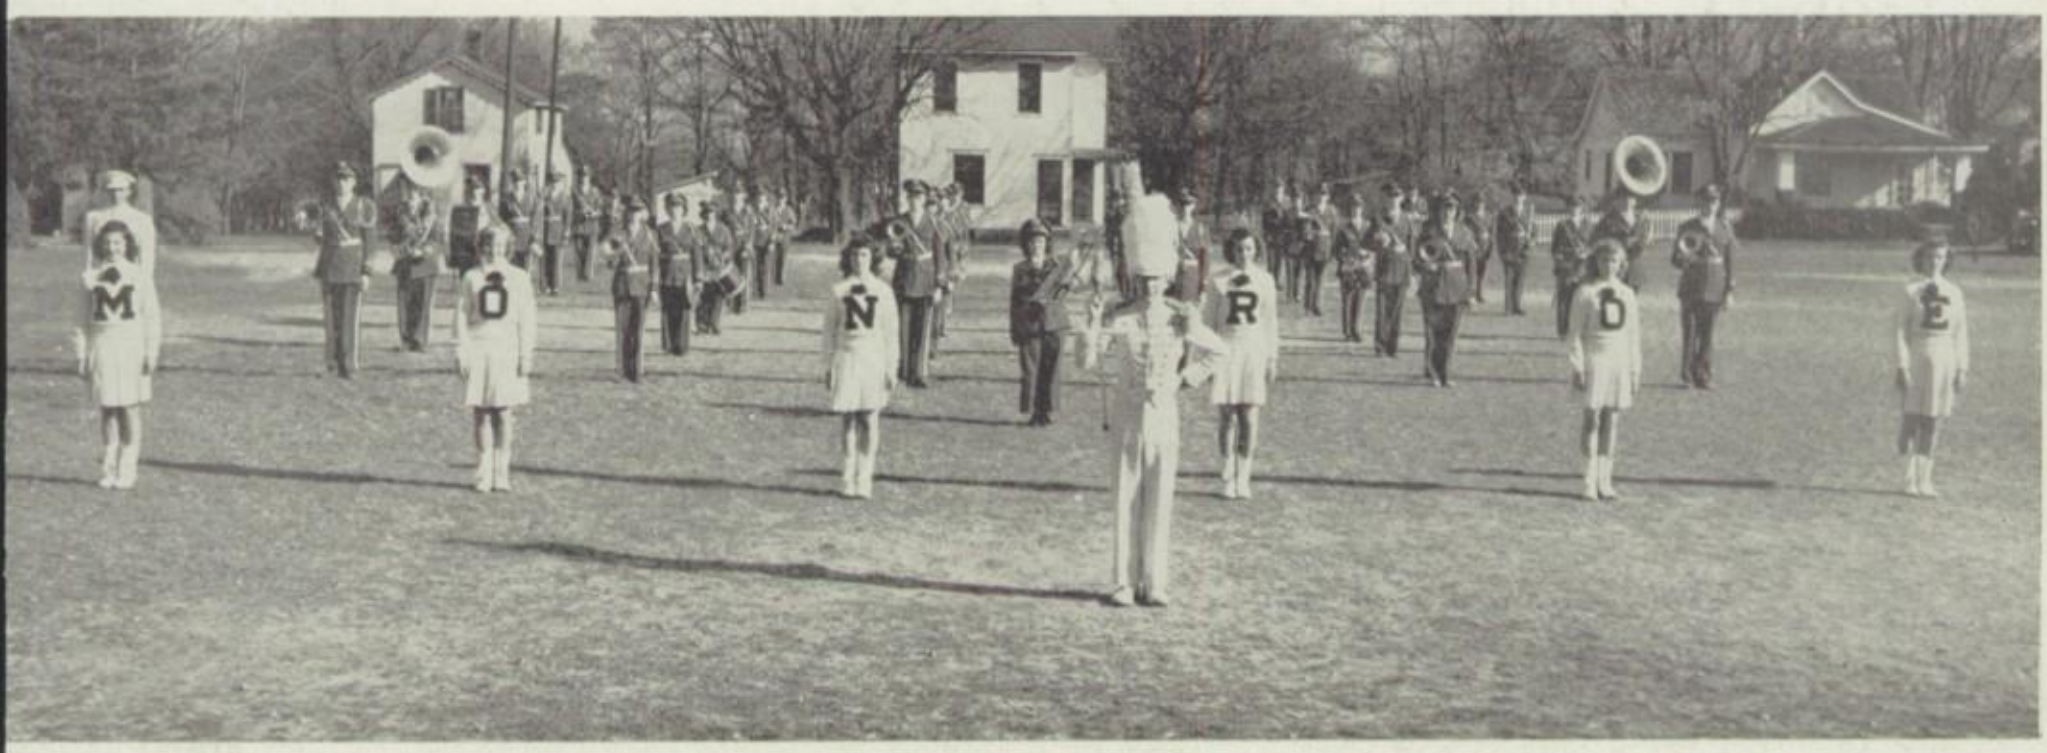
Dance Band

The dance band this year has played at many school functions and at many dances. The members are — Mr. Slayman; Vocalist, Pat Runkles; Pianist, Marla Jeanne Steward; Clarinets, Bonnie Wood, Bob Niederman, Mildred Shane; Saxophones, Ann Striefthau, Forest Swango, Jim Kemp; Trombones, Jerry Lapham, Ed Peterman; Drum, Dick Wilson; Bass, Reva Moore; Trumpets, Vernon Kowell, Don Weir.

Concert Band

One of the many organizations that has done much hard work this year is the Concert Band. It is composed of the members of the Marching Band and some elementary musicians. Both the band and Mr. Slayman, their director, are to be commended on the many fine performances they have given.

Marching Band



The Marching Band, also under the direction of Mr. Slayman, gave many snappy performances on the football field and in parades this year. Attired in their trim blue uniforms, they made a striking appearance as they marched, with lively drum major Normal Barnes and the vivacious sponsors leading them. They, also, are to be congratulated on their fine work.

VOCAL MUSIC

Pictured at the left are three of the most outstanding groups of the vocal music department — the choir, Boys' Octette, and Triple Trio. All three of these groups entered the vocal music auditions at Oxford; the choir and Boys' Octette receiving a superior rating and the Girls' Triple Trio receiving a rating of excellent. These ensembles have been very busy this year participating in many different activities. The music department is built around these groups and the vocalists needed in many different activities, such as the traveling program and the revue, are drawn from these groups.

Even though the vocal department had to be burdened with the handicap of having three different teachers this year, the students have responded gratifyingly to each of the fine teachers. The entire department is to be congratulated on its fine work and for carrying on the tradition of fine vocal music here at Monroe.

PROGRAMS

CAMPUS FOLLIES OF '49

"Campus Follies of '49" was presented April 1 and 2 on the Monroe stage which was transformed into a beautiful campus scene.

Twenty-five musical numbers were woven into the enchanting story of the Mason-Dixon Line on the campus of Tootle Tech. A vivacious freshman girl (Joan Ballard), with the aid of her boyfriend (Garry Smallwood) and the teleorecordagrapher, brought happiness to all with the reunion of Dean Mason Tootle (Bill Oglesby) and Dean Dixon Tootle (Lorna Blackmore).

The singing chorus did an excellent job on all its numbers. The dance band and the dance chorus also gave the audience much delight.

One of the most popular acts of the revue was the faculty skit in which many Monroe teachers took part. They wore the costumes of the early 1900's; the men donned handle-bar mustaches, and the women wore Gibson Girl dresses and high buttoned shoes.

The entire revue was a delightful performance which showed much hard work, cooperation, and untiring effort, both on the part of the participants and Miss Ilse, Mr. Moore, and Mr. Slayman, the directors.

PLAYS . . .

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

The Junior Class Play, "Introducin' Susan," was presented February 3. This was the first performance in the new auditorium and played to a near-capacity crowd. This rollicking comedy kept the audience in stitches.

The story deals with the troubles of a young college professor, Dick Heatherby (Forrest Swango). The professor and his wife Susan (Dina DeBolt) quarrel over a trivial matter and Susan leaves for Reno.

The professor's rich aunt, Cordelia Quackenbush (Gaye Sorrell), who is a well known lecturer on the evils of divorce, is coming for a visit. If she learns Dick is getting a divorce she is likely to cut him off without a cent.

To prevent this, Dick persuades Buddy Chalmers (Don Hall), a football star, and his girl friend Babs Boswell (Pat Byers), who are en route to a "turn-about party", to pretend to be Susan and the butler. The plot thickens as Hillington Ross (Jim Kemp), an old friend and admirer of Susan's enters along with Diana Mayfield (Peg Van Winkle), Dick's old sweetheart.

The story is further complicated by Violet (Margie Halsey), the amorous, quick-tempered cook and her "Little" brother, Cyclone (Lowell Strayer).

When Aunt Cordelia arrives, she is confronted by Buddy, Diana and Violet, who all say they're Susan. When Susan comes home Aunt Cordelia is told that Susan is the crazy woman from next door.

Susan calls her father (Ed Peterman), who rushes over flourishing a revolver. Aunt Cordelia phones the insane asylum to come pick Susan up. The two inmates (Von Ketron and Charles Brown) appear and try to lock everyone up, including Aunt Cordelia.

Aunt Cordelia seizes the gun and gets to the bottom of everything, and everyone leaves very much satisfied.

The production of the play was very capably handled by Mr. Fred Schmieder. The stage crew was composed of:

Seated—Dory Walck, Elaine Loxley, Pat Runkles, Pat Selby, Frances Burgher.

Standing—Pat Lucas, Wanda Whisman, Bill Kesterman, Larry Crist, Charlotte Chilton, Mary LaFayette.

MOTHER WALKS OUT

A very patient mother (Marcella Gehron) follows the advice of her friends, Ella (Rosemary Schobin), and Gladys (Bobbie Powell), and walks out on her dependent family. Father (Charles Moore), and the children - Larry (Jack Tudor), Marjorie (Helen Boyd), Frances (Sally Kemp), and Conrad (Dick Dieterly), get into all kinds of trouble trying to do for themselves. The play comes to a hilarious finish as mother returns for her pajamas. The play was directed by Mr. Moore.

IN THE ZONE

"In The Zone," is a tale of grief and the fear of submarines or mines. The story revolves around a little black box belonging to Smitty (Bill Oglesby). Because Smitty is different from the rest of the crew they are quick to suspect him of spying. They are very ashamed to discover the box contains only letters and a flower. The other crewmen are: Garry Smallwood, James Harrison, James Kemp, James Brammer, Lawrence Hensley. James Weir, and James Collier. It was directed by Mr. Cahill.

DON'T KEEP HIM WAITING

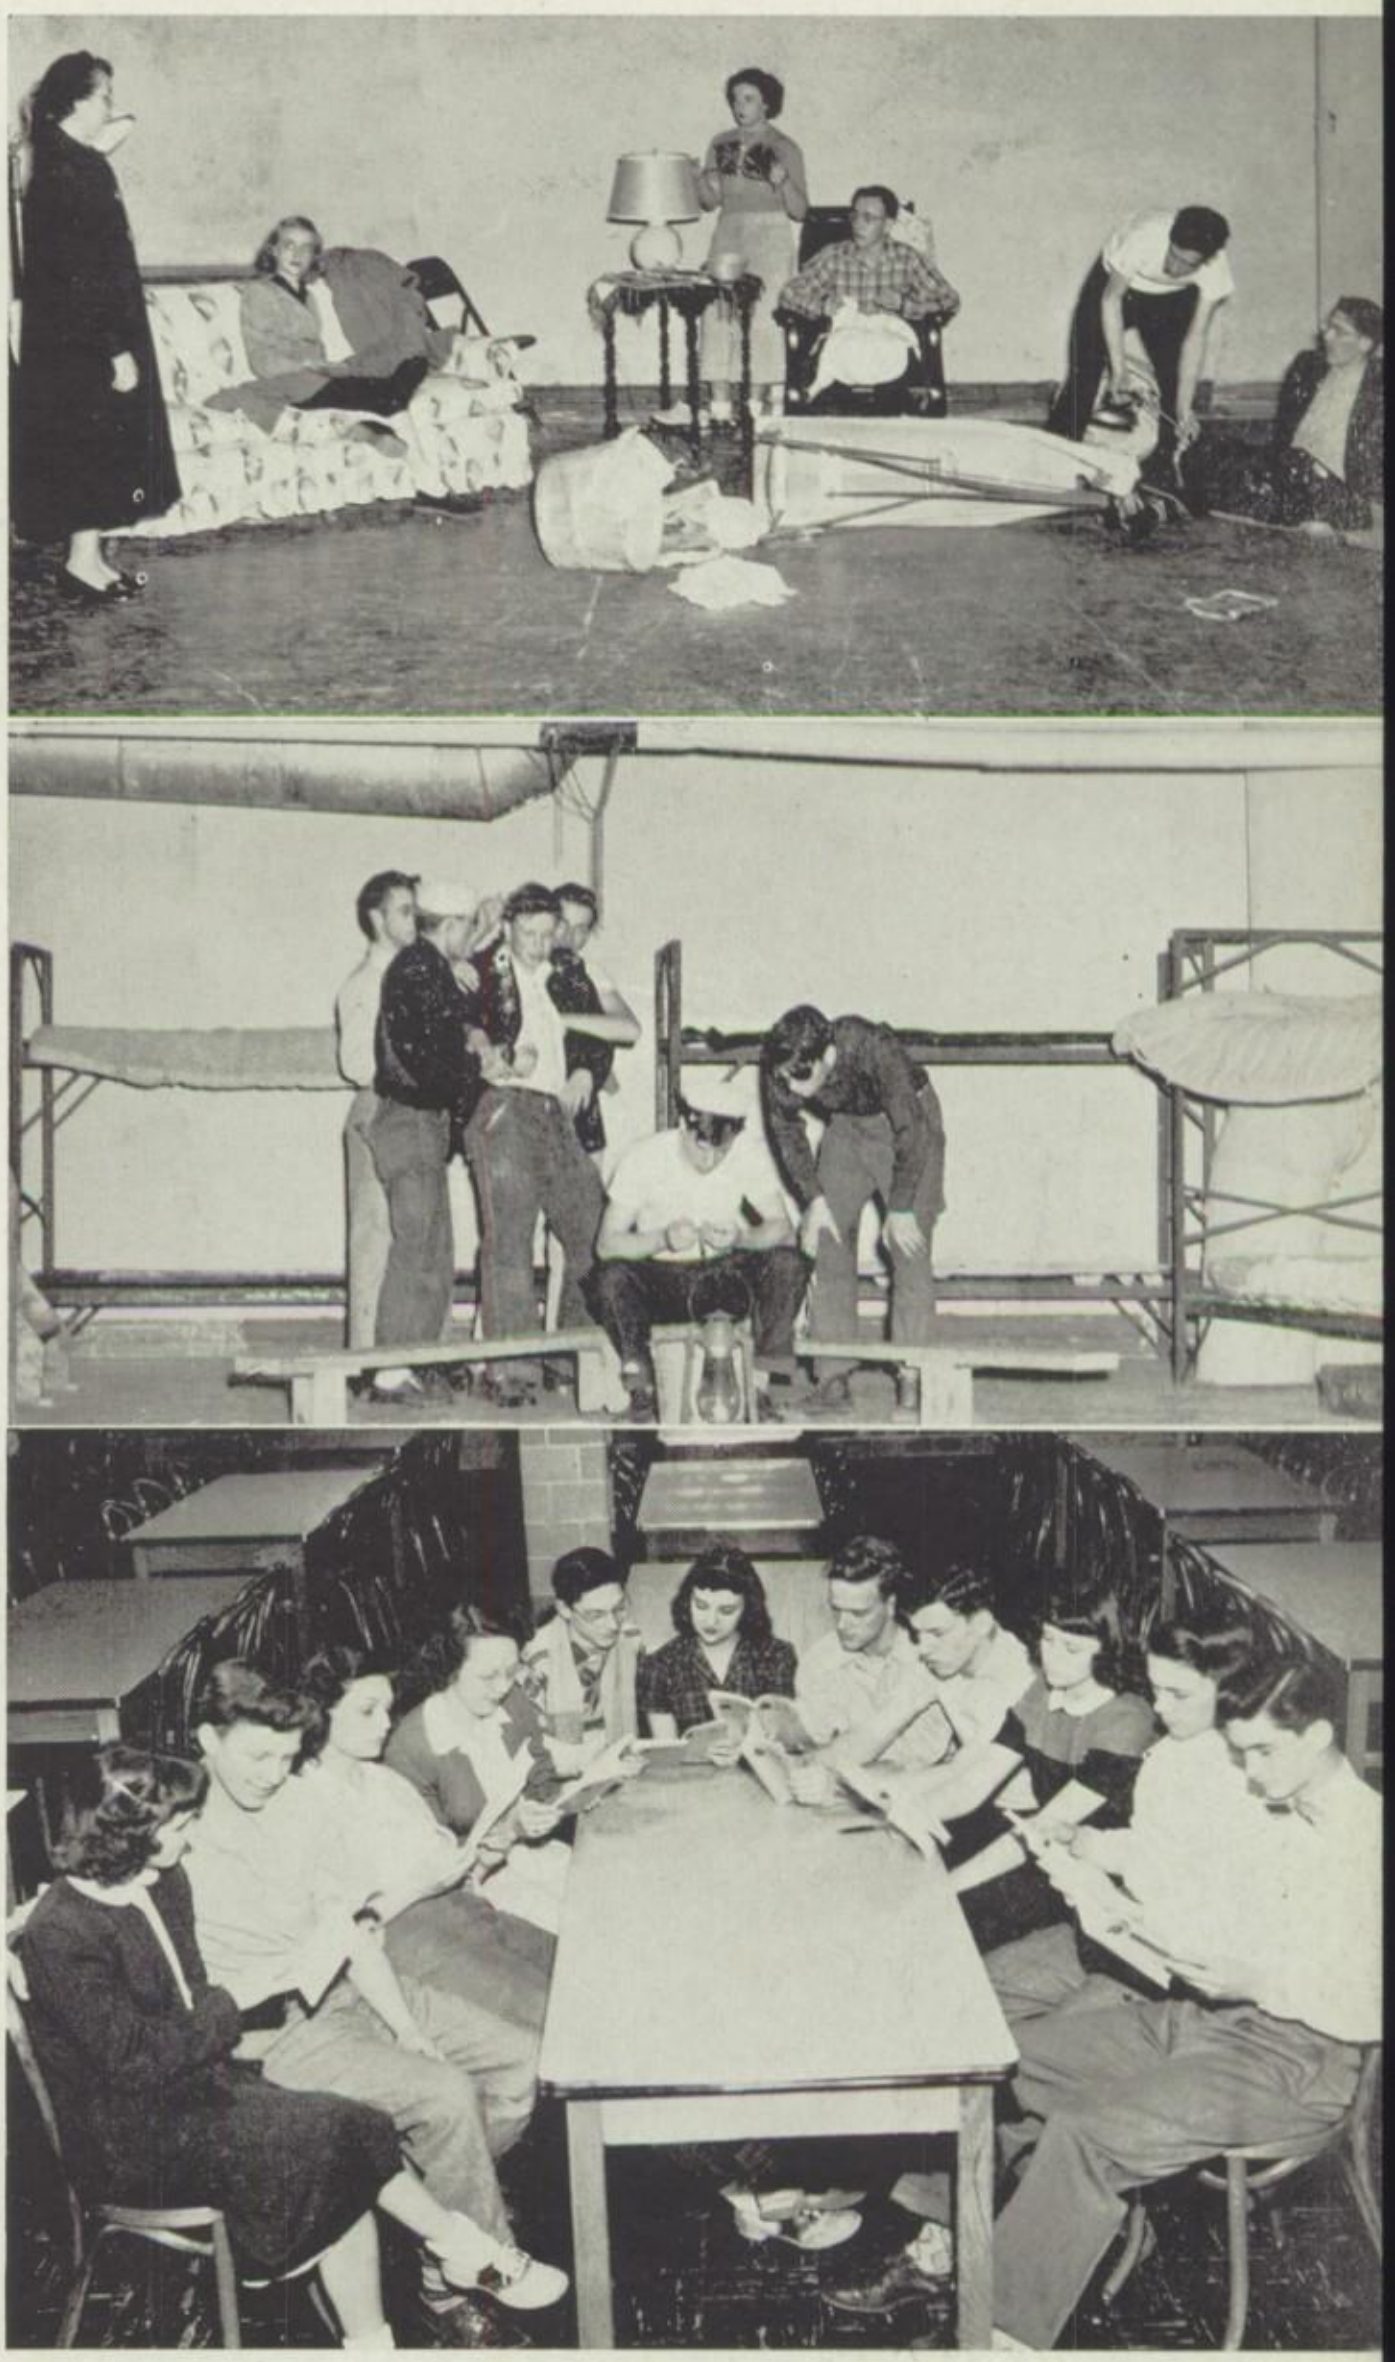
Betty Ramble (Barbara Hill), bears the burdens of the Ramble family. Jeff (Bill Oglesby) and Toodles (Joan Ballard), are very irresponsible and make all kinds of demands on Betty. Their father Owen, (Jim Weir), has a travel agency which doesn't bring in any money. Aunt Selina (Marcella Gehron) is very scatterbrained and has no idea of the value of a dollar.

Jinny (Barbara Mason) is a good little pal with a crush on Jeff. Chester (Charles Moore), Jeff's friend, is allergic to work. Sally Lou (Joanne Clark) a southern fascinator, goes for any male available along with Minerva (Reva Moore). who giggles.

David Vance (Bill Meeks), Betty's fiancé, is tired of waiting for the family to assume its responsiblities. Amos Atkins(Garry Smallwood), a business man, adds his bit along with O'Toole (Johnny Linn), a cab driver who wants his money.

The family finally assumes its own problems with Owen's business paying, Aunt Selina and Jeff with jobs and Toodles learnng to keep house. Toodles and Jinny both get their men and Dave finally marries Betty.

Mr. Schmieder very capably performed the director's duties.



ALL SCHOOL and SENIOR CLASS PLAYS

. . . PLAYS

DANCES . . .

SWEETHEART DANCE

The second annual Sweetheart Dance was held Saturday, February 4, in the Stardust Room, gayly decorated with red and white streamers and glittering stars, while the Maestros' Men furnished dreamy dance music.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Royal Couple. The ten couples who were candidates for the King and Queen entered through a large heart-shaped archway. Marie Hon and Jack Deaton, last year's King and Queen, came forward, escorted the Royal Couple to the throne and crowned Gaye Sorrell and Bill Meeks as Queen and King of the Sweethearts Dance.

After the crowning, a dazzling floor show was presented for the Royal Couple.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR PROM OF 1949

The evening of May 7, 1949, marked one of the most outstanding social events of the school year. With vari-colored finger-paintings transforming the gymnasium walls into an aqueous theme, fish and other sea animals swam in and about the abstract under-water plants. The evening's dancers descended into the gym through a low ceiling giving the effect of looking up through water. As the soft music floated through Neptune's deep domain, the evening's participants concluded their carnival activities in Davy Jones' locker.

MAY DAY '49

A beautiful sunny afternoon in May and the flower bedecked throne made a delightful setting for the annual coronation of the May Queen.

The procession of senior girls in gowns of soft pastel shades formed two aisles of myriad color as the Queen and her attendants mounted the throne. Marla Jeanne Steward, of the junior class, crowned Maxine McCloud, choice of the student body, as Queen of the May, while the Queen's attendants, Marie Hon and Treva Hammond, stood by.

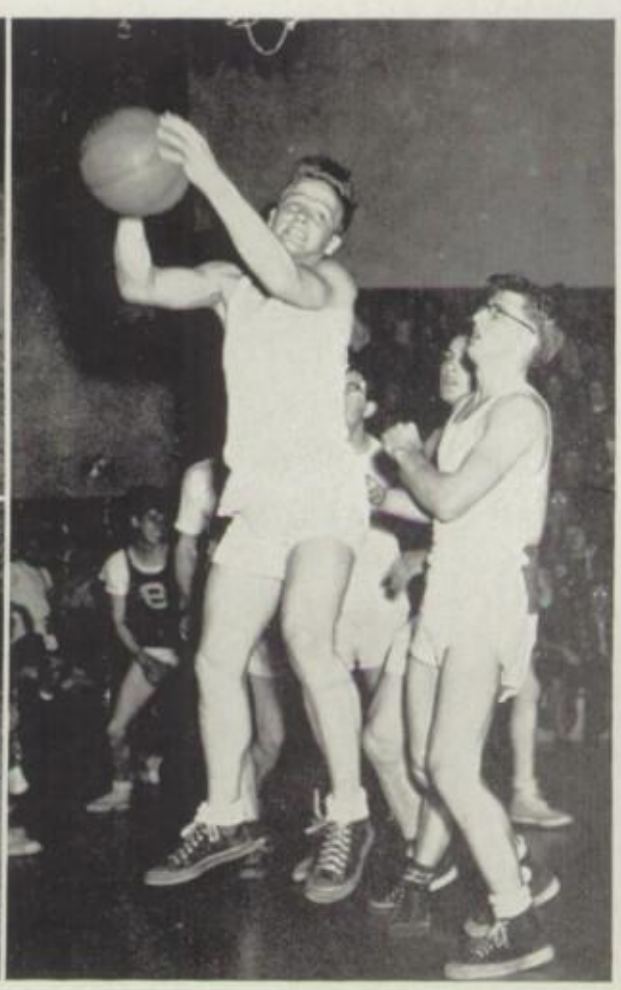
To honor the Queen, Marilyn Lovely sang "Sylvia," a trumpet trio serenaded her, and "A Pretty Girl Is Like A Melody" was played by the senior band. The traditional ceremony was closed with a recessional of the senior girls led by the Queen and her court.

NINTH PERIOD ACTIVITIES

MONDAY . . . Movies

During the ninth period on Mondays, everyone enjoys movies in the auditorium. The entertainment usually consists of several short reels which include cartoons, song fests, travel and various other educational films. Once a month a feature film is shown, much to the delight of everyone.

TUESDAY . . . Intramurals



The intramural program this year consisted of baseball, basketball, and volley ball tournaments. Each home room was represented by a team and a good-natured spirit of rivalry existed between the rooms. Pictured above are the baseball winners — sophomore girls from 301 and sophomore boys from 304. The sophomore girls from 304 and the junior boys from 102 took honors in the basketball tournament.

WEDNESDAY . . . Home Room

Freshman

Pictured below is Miss Fiori's freshman home room. She is reading to them about the rules of etiquette.

Sophomore

Mr. Schmieder's home room is having a discussion on the question of going steady in high school.

Junior

Mr. Bartlett's home room seems very much interested in what he is saying about the school building.

Senior

The members of Miss Stewart's home room are discussing problems for their student council representative to bring up at the next student council meeting.

THURSDAY . . . Clubs

During the ninth period on Thursdays everyone attends the club of his choice. There is a club to meet everyone's taste, whether it be athletics, dramatics, cooking, or crafts, just to mention a few. The clubs have added much to the extra-curricular activities of the school. The Boys' Glee Club, the Dramatics Club, and the Tumbling Club have provided us with entertainment throughout the year. The Service Club has been of indispensable worth to the functioning of the school. Many of the clubs have helped the students with their selection of a vocation, such as F. T. A., Crafts Club, or Science Club. Others are just for enjoyment, such as Dancing Club, Boys' Cooking Club, Twirlers' Club, and Canasta and Bridge Club. There are many other clubs, each one accomplishing a worth while purpose and it is hoped that this new program will become an established custom at Monroe.

Political Convention

Brass bands and long-winded orators hit the high note of the political convention. The promising babble of prospective office-seekers and the uproarious approval of the respective districts and precints, banners, paper signs, and vigorous campaigns heralded the candidates and their principals to the attention of all. Followed by a most democratic form of voting and tabulation, the victorious nominees rose from strenuous opposition into their worthy offices. This convention must be noted for the wise decisions coming from it.

Traveling Program

With Baby New Year listening intently, Father Time related his experiences of the previous year through the songs and dances of the cast, giving him an idea of what to expect during his reign. This composed the general theme of the Traveling Program of '50.

A boy who needs $10,000

That's right—ten thousand dollars! He doesn't need it now, but he will in about 10 years, somewhere around 1960. He'll be needing a job then. But before he can work at that job, someone has to put up more than $10,000! That's the amount of money it takes to finance every job at Armco Steel Corporation.

Where will the $10,000 come from? Can his father supply it? Or grandpa? Certainly we can't expect the young man himself to have that much by 1960.

At Armco, stockholders have been supplying most of the money for the past 50 years. From their savings and from the profits of Armco's business, the buildings, tools and machinery for each job have been purchased—$10,000 worth for every Armco man and woman. Without that money from stockholders, there would be no Armco jobs.

"MONOCLE STAFF"

Once every year there's one special thing
Of which many praises and plaudits we sing,
This year the one thing that's greatest and best
Is Monocle, the yearbook. It surpasses the rest.

The staff is complete with seniors galore—
The best of the lot—you could ask for no more.
There's Oglesby, Bill, and Moores' little Charlie:
They're editors (co) and efficient, by golly.

The sports staff is tops, and Staton's the head,
And words such as Fleming writes you've never read.
Our pictures are splendid; no yearbook can tie us.
Photographer? Wilkinson. His helper? Tobias.

With Marla Jean Stewart "awielding" the brush,
The art work is "catty," and you'll want to rush
To purchase your Monocle now while they last,
For subscriptions head Powell says they're going mighty fast.

Our yearbook sells ads—that proves it has style,
And proves that all Butler thinks it worthwhile.
It's Ruby who sells but Joan's not forgot,
Nor Phyllis and Betty who help out a lot.

To see that no losses crop all our gain,
We've business executive, Mildred M. Shane.
She's busy with ledgers, check books and fees,
And Steward and Rothfuss are busy as bees.

Wherever you look you'll see someone working:
No one on Monocle is ever found shirking.
The clickety clack of a typewriter near
Is certain to lead you to head typist Greer.

Others who work for the Monocle's good
Are Sorrell and Baird, and Lansaw and Wood.
Whoever they are and whatever they do,
They work hard all day on the yearbook for you.

You must then subscribe to the Monocle '50:
There's no other book so keen and so nifty.
Two single dollars and one little half,
Buys all that's been done by the Monocle staff.

Gigantic! Terrific! No words used today
Can say of the yearbook what we have to say.
Placing Thesaurus, then, back on the shelf,
We say: "Buy a Monocle and see for yourself."
